Fleming-Basye.

Associated with impressiveness and simplicity were the nuptials of Miss Rebecca Basye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Basye of Tulsa, Okla., and Mr. Chester V. Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fleming of this city. The wedding ceremony took place at 12:45 o'clock, at the home of the groom's parents, 1137 North Cheyenne avenue, Rev. Harold G. Cooks, pastor of the Centenary Methodist church officiating. Miss Vivian Zerkle, played alone and entered alone and stood before an improvised altar of flowers, the floral arrangement being done by the bride and other members decorating the home.

The bride wore a smart tailleur of brown Polet twill with beaver trimming and hat and other accessories in accord and her flowers were bride's roses and a fern. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming were from the City and Norman and on their return to Hill will be located with the groom's parents until their home at 1332 St. Louis avenue is completed. The bride, a young woman of much charm, has been making her home here with her sister, Miss Della Basye, 1201 South Boulder avenue. She is a graduate of the University and is a member of the Tulsa Male chorus, possession of a fine tenor voice, and is one of the city's popular young business men.

EVANS-CONWAY.

Miss Mary Jewell Conway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Conway of 1250 South Cheyenne avenue, and Mrs. W. W. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Evans of Cristfield, Md., were married Wednesday evening at 8:45 o'clock in the League room at the Boston Avenue Methodist church, Dr. Louis S. Barton, pastor officiating in a very impressive manner. The nuptials were celebrated before a large company of friends of both bride and groom. Following the ceremony, Mr. Charles McCarron sang "The Sweetest Song Ever Told."

The formal setting was in keeping with the season and very attractive, palms and ferns decorating the altar. Afterward an informal reception was held at the home of the bride, when 30 friends were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans left at 10:45 for the east, where they will visit the groom's relatives and will later go to New York City and other points. The bride is a popular member of the social set here. The green shares this popularity and is associated with one of the city's banking concerns. The bride wore her traveling attire of navy blue duchess, with brown hat and accessories and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses.
